

WOMEN BUILDING RESILIENCE TOWARD A RESPONSIBLE FUTURE

Side Event for:

7th Session of Open Working Group on Sustainable Development Goals

Please note a change from the title in the online program

Responsible Decision-making for Building a Resilient Future: An analytical view of the role of women and the need to change consumption and production patterns to transition toward a future ready to face climate change (title in program)

Date: January 7, 2014

Hour: 6:15-7:30 PM

Place: Conference Room 7 in the North Lawn Building, UN HQ New York

Come hear experiences of speakers from Uganda, SIDS, Paraguay, Indonesia and Bolivia & join in a lively interactive discussion.

Thematic Focus:

- Women and Climate Change – key to achieving sustainable development
- Disaster and Risk Reduction - strategies that overcome gender barriers
- Sustainable Production and Consumption - women's decisions toward a sustainable future

Organizer(s): Women's Environment and Development Organization - Global Forest Coalition - Reacción Climática - Bolivia - and the Women's Major Group

For more info please contact: carmen_capriles@bolivia.com eleanor@wedo.org